

PBWL BOOK CLUB MARCH MEETING

At our March meeting we were honored to have Maria Nhambu speak to us about her book “Africa’s Child”. Nhambu grew up in an orphanage in Tanzania for mixed race children run by German Nuns. She spoke of her amazing life and inspired so many of our members. Her passion for education and dance continued when she was able to fulfill her dream and come to the U.S. (left to right: Nancy Bicket, Nhambu, Kathleen Roberts and Liz Feit).
